Whole Family Involved.

Sonoma Belle carried the hopes of the Cochran family in earnest. The Star Ruby filly is owned by Mrs. C. Cochran, is trained by her husband, and was ridden yesterday by their son, J. Cochran, the younger brother of Harry, the jockey who was once the star rider of the Whitney stable. The little fellow handled the Belle like a veteran.

Africander, who is at Saratoga, is taking the "water cure" and is reported to be himself again. His owner, Charley Fox, believes the famous horse will be hard to beat before the epd of the season. Fox came near winning a fat bankroll with Ascension in the first race yesterday.
